THANKS!

This booklet, published earlier than usual, may not contain as much news as its predecessors. However the booklet may prove useful throughout the winter and we hope that the Alumnae finding it so will keep in closer touch with the Association. Miss Susan Marshall and Doctor Harley have given invaluable aid with the roll and Margaret McVey has lent a great deal of assistance, especially in helping to circularize the Alumnae. I send my heartfelt thanks to all those who have sent any corrections or suggestions. Publishing this booklet will result only in a futile effort without your aid.

THE SECRETARY.

ANNUAL MEETING, JUNE, 1925

The Alumnae Association of Sweet Briar assembled for their annual meeting in the Academic Building of the college on June 1, 1925 at ten o'clock.

President Margaret McVey opened the meeting at once. Reports from the Secretary and Treasurer were read and accepted. The President then addressed the graduating class, assuring it of a cordial welcome into the Association and urging the class to form two resolutions: First, that it would begin at once to plan for full attendance at its reunion, that each member of the class should feel her responsibility to come back and keep in touch with the needs and progress of the college. That the Class President should continue the business of her office throughout life keeping the class closely together, a co-operative unit, and therefore a real power. Second, that each Senior would at once become an active member of some chapter in the Association. Chairmen and Committees from the class were appointed in those places where no chapter existed, and the Chairmen were given the responsibility of organizing chapters at once. The Senior class seemed eager to undertake its responsibility and we feel sure that from this class we can expect not only a beginning but a fulfillment of this work.

The chapter reports were then called for. Louisa Newkirk, president of the Philadelphia chapter reported that they held a very successful Sweet Briar Day luncheon but was sorry to report the failure to raise any money recently. The New York Chapter's report did not arrive in time for the meeting, but we know from reports received during the year that they had had the most successful year of any of the chapters. From a card party this chapter made between $250 and $300, and received a most generous gift from Mr. Zell, Alice Swain Zell's husband.

The Cleveland Chapter, once a very strong body, had been disorganized. We were very glad of its re-organization with Margaret Mierke, 1922, as president. They have made $125 on a card party and have made plans to give a dance in June.

No recent report was sent from Pittsburgh. We only know that they had a well attended Sweet Briar Day Luncheon, and elected Selma Brandt, now Mrs. Paul Kress, president.

No report from Cincinnati. Their meetings are held the first Saturday in each month at the University Club.

The Richmond Chapter reported giving a Johns Hopkins Glee Club entertainment which proved a social but not a financial success. The Sweet Briar Day luncheon was held very successfully.

No report at all from Washington.

Sweet Briar Day was appointed for Dec. 28. Attendance was urged and everyone was asked to read the letters sent out at that time by the Association. These letters contain news that we want you to receive and to pass on to others. Booklets were given to each member of the graduating class and they were urged to read them carefully and give suggestions for their improvement.

A suggestion was made that the Association should take over a page or two in the college magazine, The Brambler. This would contain recent news of the Alumnae. An Alumnae Editor was elected—Amy Williams, 1925.

The plan of the Manson Memorial Scholarship was presented and fully explained. Each chapter was asked for $25 a year and the Alumnae Treasury will contribute the remaining sum of money, amounting at present to $50 a year. As the number of chapters increase, the amount paid by each chapter will decrease and the Association will not be called on for any more money. This scholarship is to be presented each year at Commencement to the girl in the Upper Classes who shall be considered the best all round student, having attained merit grades, showing qualities of leadership and taking part in most student activities. Discussion followed and the Scholarship was adopted.

Report on the Boxwood Inn was given by Mrs. Peyton Evans who is Alumnae chairman of the Inn Committee. Alumnae feel keen interest in the Inn because in its beginning they had a very large share. Since then the Board and Miss McVea has granted us a member on the Inn Committee. Mrs. Evans has been excellent in the position but she wished to resign, saying that she was criticized often because of changes that had been made without consulting her or her having any knowledge of these changes. She was urged to retain the chairmanship for another year and finally agreed. Discussion followed concerning the purpose of the Inn. The old purpose was to take care of the parents and old girls returning and the tourists. Actually it has been used as a Dormitory. The Seniors stated that the girls living in the Inn did not feel the jurisdiction of Student Government. It was moved and passed that a letter be written Dr. Glass stating that the Alumnae disapproved of the practice of allowing students to live in the Inn because it was not the purpose of the Inn and because it defeated the Student Government and the Alumnae feel that they cannot continue to be connected with the Inn if it is run in the future as in the past.

It was decided that the Alumnae luncheon held during Finals be exclusively for the Alumnae and Former Students.

Mrs. Wailes gave the bookshop report. This year the bookshop paid no scholarship. A motion was passed that since Miss Ruby Walker found it necessary to do clerical work at home, a letter should be sent to Miss McLaws, chairman of the bookshop committee, stating that they highly approved of Miss Walker's policy in the Bookshop and hoped she would receive greater remuneration. The Alumnae went on record stating that they wished the matter of scholarships be more carefully worked out; that if they are awarded as scholarships they be given as Honors but if the money is to be used as a Student Loan Fund the name of the recipient be withheld.

It was moved and passed that an Alumnae Council be formed and meet at Sweet Briar at some time next year, convenient to Dr. Glass. This Council is formed of the officers, executive of the Association, representatives from the chapters, who will meet with the class presidents, the executive committee of the Faculty and the officers of the Student Activities. If it is impossible for any officer to attend she must appoint an alternate.

The Student Drive was next discussed. All chapters will hereafter send in their money to the Treasury of the Association. Miss McVey stated that she made an attempt but failed to get an Alumnae Chairman when the drive was reorganized in the middle of the session. Nominations and elections for an Alumnae chairman followed. Nominations: Eleanor Harned, 1924; Frederica Bernhard, 1924; Fanny Ellsworth Scannell, 1921. Eleanor Harned was elected.

It was suggested that the chaperoning privileges of the Alumnae be written into the Student Government Constitution. We were also instructed to ask the Dean to request the Chief of Police on Sweet Briar grounds to respect the demands made by the Student Government officers.

Since no further business remained the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

ELIZABETH D. TAYLOR, Sec.

ALUMNAE LETTER OF WELCOME TO PRESIDENT GLASS

My dear Dr. Glass:

The Alumnae Association of Sweet Briar wish to express pleasure in the choice of the Board of Trustees for the Presidency of the College. It was a matter of regret to us that we were unable to meet you personally at Finals, but we hope that during the coming year many of us will have the opportunity of knowing you better. We want you to feel that we are ready to cooperate with you in your work at Sweet Briar and look to you for many valuable suggestions for the improvement of our organization.

Sincerely yours,

Elizabeth Talyor, Sec.

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION.

REPLY FROM PRESIDENT GLASS

Linville, N. C.
July 10, 1925

Miss Elizabeth Taylor
Secretary, Alumnae Association
Richmond, Virginia

Dear Miss Taylor:

I wish to thank the Alumnae Association of Sweet Briar for its good wishes and promise of co-operation in my guidance of your college. I do want to work with you as closely as you will allow and I look forward with pleasure to meeting you singly and in groups as well as in the full association meetings that we may learn how to help each other to help Sweet Briar.

Most sincerely yours,
META GLASS, President.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT GLASS

July 21, 1925

Alumnae and Former Students of Sweet Briar:

I welcome this opportunity to greet you formally as a body and to indicate to you with what keenness of interest I enter upon the task of guiding your college, and with what eagerness I look forward to active cooperation with you in all that preserves your ties of affection and all that makes for the growth and value of Sweet Briar. You are growing to be so large a group that we can look forward to great accomplishments from you, and I wish you to know that I stand ready to help you wherever you need me.

You will be glad to know that Fletcher, Fergus Reid, and the Infirmary will all be ready when college opens in the fall, and that Sweet Briar House, now that it can be freed from offices, is to be really, what it has been previously designated, the President's house. The four rooms across the front downstairs are being restored as nearly as we can to their former character, the upper part of the house toward the dell and the post-office and Mr. Dew's office have been turned over to the president, and the other wing in its second story with its separate entrance, halls and sitting-room is being assigned to a group of faculty members. All the officers whom you once sought in Sweet Briar House you will now find on the main floor of Fletcher.

The reception rooms of Fergus Reid, larger than those in the other residence halls, are to be furnished with proper dignity to make them useful for college receptions.

We are fairly making the walls of the assembly hall bulge to accommodate the additional students of 1925-26 and visions of a new library and a new chapel are already beginning to haunt the dreams of some of us.

Miss McVea was at college for a few days on her way to Maine for the summer and seemed encouragingly stronger. After a meeting of the Board of Directors on July 14th she was elected President Emeritus and we hope that she will be at Sweet Briar to help inaugurate the new president in the fall and that many of you will be able to see her then.

The portrait of Mr. Manson was presented in June and is to be hung in Fletcher.

From the items that I, new as I am, have been able to pass on to you you will see that there are abundant things to bring you back to college, where you will be, as ever, welcome.

Faithfully yours,

META GLASS.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As the years go by it seems more difficult to write a statement of the work of our growing Alumnae. For with graduating classes of 40 and the usual number who do not finish their courses our Association is growing in the list of girls who are eligible for membership in our organization; but is our Alumnae Association really growing? To the officers it seems that our growth is almost imperceptible.

There are no more organized Chapters of Alumnae than there were at this time last year and to our regret one of our much boasted chapters of last year has failed to communicate with us in any way. This is a serious subject and one over which we have worked but without results. In June we studied the list of graduates and appointed chapter chairmen wherever possible and this Fall they will receive lists of Former Students living in their vicinity, so we have hopes of several more organized chapters.

This year for Sweet Briar Day the Secretary sent a News Letter to over 50 Former Students and included instructions about holding a Sweet Briar Day Luncheon so that this news might be disseminated. Our Secretary is still curious as to the results of her efforts as so few of the chairmen appointed ever replied to her letter. This letter and instructions were quite expensive for us to send out and if the work is to be entirely lost we are almost afraid to continue the expenditure of time and money. If you received a News Letter last year and did nothing with it won't you decide now to co-operate with us in our next Sweet Briar Day?

Class Reunions in June have not proved a success. Of course we realize the struggle to choose between May Day and Finals but for the good of the Association won't you plan to return to your next organized class reunion? This year only 5 of the Class of 1923 returned for their reunion while the Class of 1920 had one representative. This next year the College will be 20 years old and we want enough Alumnae back for their Annual Meeting to make the Association a real power in the life of the College. The classes holding reunions this June, 1926, will be 1924, 1921, 1916. The Class of 1921 which is holding its fifth reunion will be in charge of Finals and I hope they will be able to have an Alumnae Play. They have already been notified and we know they will not fail us.

The Student Drive at College has progressed steadily but without any concentrated help from the Alumnae. Last year we realized that if we did not send our money in through our own Treasurer the Association would receive no credit, so at our Annual Meeting we asked that all gifts to the Drive be sent to our Treasurer. But we are ashamed to report that the Treasurer of our Association received no funds for this purpose. At our meeting we elected Eleanor Harned, 1924, chairman of the Alumnae, so our hopes have risen high.

In the matter of keeping the Alumnae in closer touch with the college and supplying them with news we can see marked growth. This booklet will be mailed this Fall instead of late in the Winter when all the news will be stale. As mentioned before we sent out a News Letter at Christmas and by the end of June copies of our Annual Meeting were mailed to all organized chapters.

Our list of Active Members has decreased from about 675 to 500. That is a great decline and means a loss of about $175 a year to the Association. This decrease has been in the last three years. To counteract this we are mailing to the chapters a list of members stating when they last paid their dues to the Association and we hope that the chapter treasurer will get them to pay their dues. On the other hand our Life Members have grown from 43 to 62. Of this number 28 are graduates while 34 are Former Students. This is a great showing for the Former Students and it ought to stir the graduates to better work.

As you can read in the minutes an Alumnae

Council was formed to keep the old girls better informed about the college and her needs.

This statement has its encouraging as well as its darker side. Where we have fallen down the officers have taken pains to make other plans and are hoping for big results. But this cannot be possible without your individual support. Although so much of this report deals with the Alumnae who will not co-operate I feel that I must take this time to thank the many true friends of the Association who have always come to my aid.

Respectfully submitted.

MARGARET McVEY.

A MESSAGE FROM MISS McVEA

My Dear Girls:

Heretofore in my annual letter for the booklet, I have written as President of Sweet Briar College; today I am writing to you as one of yourselves. I am happy to be counted as one of Sweet Briar's Alumnae and I thank you most heartily for the honor you have done me in electing me to an honorary membership in your Association.

My decision to give up the active Presidency of Sweet Briar was not an easy one to make; and only the realization that my physical strength was not sufficient to meet the demands of so highly important and rapidly growing a work, induced me to resign. In leaving the Presidency, however, I am not relinquishing either my interest or my participation in the work of the College. To advance the welfare of Sweet Briar will always be one of my chief concerns; and Sweet Briar girls everywhere will always be dear to me.

Never could Sweet Briar Alumnae look forward with greater certainty to the future growth and usefulness of their College than today. Its position in the educational world is now secure; Sweet Briar is well and favorably known all over the country for its sound educational ideals and for its strong student-body. The new buildings have increased the number of our students for next year to four hundred and forty. Next year's Senior Class numbers sixty. I believe our foundations are sound and that Sweet Briar is steadily growing in influence and usefulness in the field of higher education. Dr. Glass is an ideal choice for our third President. She unites every quality that will make for success: sound classical scholarship, unusual administrative ability, and a thorough acquaintance with educational problems. Her personality is charming and she has the strength and vigor belonging of right to a young woman. I am sure that she will command your hearty co-operation and warm allegiance.

To me one of the distinctive qualities of Sweet Briar has been the joy of its students; never have I known in any other college a happier group of girls. Joy and the keen appreciation of beauty should be the heritage of every Sweet Briar girl from the Alma Mater which so abounds in the loveliness of nature and which offers so rich and wholesome an out-of-door life to her daughters. Let us cherish these qualities of joy and beauty without which education, no matter of how high a scholarship, withers and becomes arid.

Let us one and all make our loyalty to Sweet Briar a vital part of our lives and let us pledge ourselves always to her sevice.

In closing I wish to thank the Alumnae for every contribution they have made to the best development of the College; and I also want to take this opportunity to express my deep appreciation of the evidences of your solicitude and loyalty which came to me during my illness.

Faithfully your friend,

EMILIE WATTS McVEA.

STATEMENTS FROM DIRECTORS, FACULTY, STUDENTS AND ALUMNAE READ AT COMMENCEMENT AND SENT TO MISS McVEA

The Directors of Sweet Briar College desire to put on record their high appreciation of the great service that Doctor Emilie Watts McVea has rendered to the college in the nine years of her presidency. When she accepted her election to this office the college numbered 117 students, 19 of them irregular students, with a faculty of 22.

In some quarters there was discouragement; abroad there was a spirit of criticism; within the college were divided loyalties and opposing policies. The success of the enterprise still hung in the balance. Dr. McVea will hand over to her successor a college in which 362 students were enrolled for the present session; with a faculty of 32 members and ten new buildings. The college stands in the first rank, and has an assured future with its harmoniously working staff and loyal students and alumnae.

The determining factor in this transformation and advance has undoubtedly been the courage, good judgment, and powers of administration of President McVea. She has known how to bear anxieties and trials with fortitude, and has had the vision that cheers and inspires. Under her the college has advanced in its scholastic requirements, and also in the spirit of social service and in religious earnestness. She has ruled the students firmly, yet understandingly, winning their love without weakening their respect. She has gathered about her an able faculty and given them their proper share in the life of the college. She has lifted from the shoulders of the Directors the burden of anxiety, and has carried them along with her enthusiastically in her plans for the development of the institution.

She has made the college more serviceable to the County, gained for it honor and consideration in the State, and given it a national character by the rank she has secured for it, and by her own personal distinction among educators.

The Board has accepted her resignation with regret, and only upon the conviction that such a step was necessary for her best interests. She will carry with her into her retirement, or as we trust into new and less exacting activities, the gratitude, admiration and affection of every department of this college. We are proud to have had her as our President and believe that she will hold in history an honored place among the pioneers and leaders in the South of the higher education of women.

Dear Miss McVea:

It is with profound regret that the Faculty of Sweet Briar College has heard of your resignation.

The material successes of your nine years of arduous service are evident to all who know Sweet Briar, the rapid increase in number of students, the enlargement of the Faculty, the enrichment of the course of study, the number of buildings erected, and the care given to beautify the campus—these material achievements are patent and to be grasped by every passer-by—but only the Faculty can fully estimate the more subtle yet more precious achievements of the past nine years—the resolute breadth of view, the strenuous effort to guide not to coerce into the straight path, to clear the vision, to uphold ideals, to work sympathetically with Faculty as well as students, to give every one a chance to attain her highest, these achievements, known to us most of all, seem best worth while. Because of your patience, tolerance, love, we love you and feel keenly the loss of your presence and we wish you restored health and energy in the coming years, to help others as you have helped us.

June 2, 1925

Dear Miss McVea:

It is hard for the students of Sweet Briar to tell you in any adequate way how much we miss you, and how deeply we feel our loss in your absence from Sweet Briar. At this commencement, the last when you are still our head, we grieve to know that you will not be here next fall.

For us you are the representation of the spirit of Sweet Briar, of the ideals toward which we have worked. Our love for Sweet Briar has been so united with our love for you that we cannot separate them, and our loyalty to both will impel us always toward the fulfillment of those standards which you have set for us.

We rejoice in our good fortune in that we have been at Sweet Briar under your leadership, and we also rejoice in the hope that with restored health you will later be able to give to other girls the inspiration you have given us.

Our warmest love is with you on this commencement day.

The Students of Sweet Briar,

(Signed) Eugenia Goodall,
Elizabeth Rountree,
Martha Lee,
Elizabeth Manning,
Mary Stuart Cassard.

ALUMNAE MESSAGE TO MISS McVEA

The Alumnae Association deeply regrets your absence and takes this time to express its deep appreciation of all that you have done for the college and the constant inspiration you have been to us. We hope that by becoming an honorary member of our organization we will be assured of your continued interest in our work.

MISS McVEA'S LETTER TO THOSE AT COMMENCEMENT

May, 1925

To the Directors, Faculty and Students of Sweet Briar College:

It is a source of profound sorrow to me that I cannot be with you on this Commencement Day—a day fraught for me and for you with remembrances of the past and high hope for the future. My thoughts dwell continually on this college of our love and care, as I give its guidance into other hands, confident that the coming years will fulfill the rich promise of the past.

As I take official leave of the Directors and of my faculty I wish to thank them heartily for their labors during the nine years of my administration. Together we have worked and planned for a strong, enduring college, where individual gifts might be fostered, where the things of the spirit might be developed, where study and learning might go hand in hand with joy. Our material resources have been few, our difficulties and our problems have sometimes seemed insuperable; but through steady effort; through courage; through a belief in Sweet Briar, we have built on the foundations ably laid by others, an institution which I believe is sound and true, an institution whose beauty and whose worth will draw to it in the years to come the material gifts so sorely needed to complete the work already begun and to increase the usefulness and power of our college.

Of the countless personal kindnesses of Directors and faculty I may not at this time speak. I thank each one of you and feel as I go into a new and quieter life that I carry with me your friendship.

I have been made happy by the choice of Dr. Meta Glass as my successor. Dr. Glass is an able executive, a classical scholar, a woman of high educational ideals and of delightful personality. She inherits the fine traits of Virginia and of North Carolina. Many of you have met her and have already felt the influence of her charm and strength. Her guidance will secure the future of the college we love. Let us one and all, Directors, Faculty, Alumnae and Students pledge our unfailing loyalty and devotion to the Sweet Briar of today and to the Sweet Briar of the future.

In imagination I look into the faces of the graduating class this morning and I speak as if I were present with you. For four years you have found at Sweet Briar work and joy; you have faced and overcome obstacles; you have enlarged your mental and spiritual horizons; you have gained enduring friendships and memories to which you will turn often in the years that lie before you. I would say to you as you face life: Go forth without fear. You will meet hard things, but who would be content with ease and softness? Your life is a part of the life of the universe. At times you will seem to yourself too small to be of consequence, too weak to have an effect in the battle for right. But in the onward progress of the race no individual effort for righteousness is ever really made in vain. Only as the individual develops in right thinking, in courage, in social understanding, can the race advance. Each one of you is needed today; what you think, what you do, what vision you hold will affect for good or ill your day and time. Hold high your ideals. Scorn pettiness. Make large your horizons. Let the clean searching winds of God blow through your lives, cleansing and ennobling them. Have faith in your fellow-beings; have faith in yourself; have faith in love; have faith in life. For life is the great adventure of the soul of man. Lay hold on life, for life with all its joys, its successes, its difficulties and its struggles is good. And through life you will find God.

Faithfully yours,

Emilie W. McVea.

MRS. MANSON'S LETTER OF THANKS TO ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION FOR N. C. MANSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

My Dear Margaret:

I wish I could express to you and all the other members of the Sweet Briar Alumnae Association my very deep appreciation of your tribute to Mr. Manson's memory.

There is nothing you could have done that would have gratified him more than the gift of a scholarship in his name.

He loved the college so dearly that it affords me the greatest pleasure to have such evidences of appreciation of his devotion to the school. No one will ever have its interests more keenly at heart.

I regret that I was unable to be present at the presentation of his portrait but I did not feel equal to the ordeal.

I only wish that I could thank each one personally but through you as President I send heartfelt thanks and all good wishes.

Faithfully yours,

MARY MOORE MANSON.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE NEW YORK CHAPTER OF THE SWEET BRIAR ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION FOR 1924-1925

The regular meetings for 1924-1925 began in October and were held monthly at the University Club. Seven meetings were held with an average attendance of 12 members.

The Christmas Bridge was a great success this year and added $294.15 to the treasury. With the generous gift of $500.00 from Mr. Swain and $45.00 cleared from the Rummage Sale held in Newark during February our Building Fund now totals $952.15.

Our chapter takes in a very wide area, and we are grateful for the loyal support of those who have attended the meetings.

Respectfully submitted,

ELEANOR R. SMITH, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE NEW YORK CHAPTER OF THE ASSOCIATION

Madam President and Fellow Alumnae:

Our Secretary's report gives you an idea of the meetings, our plans, our resolutions and failures. This report is one phase of chapter life, and one only.

Two years of meetings have developed a nucleus of six who attend meetings fairly regularly. Others come when they can "park their infants." There is another group who never come. An attempt has been made to have speakers. It is most embarrassing to invite a speaker and introduce her to a few. What is the solution?

For three meetings our secretary read every scrap she or anyone had received about Sweet Briar—whole letters, expurgated letters, newspaper clippings of engagements and weddings—the Brambler—and best of all the "News Letter." Comment and criticism followed. There was keen interest but that is not enough.

Our secretary wrote other chapters.—No reply. Is is impossible to keep interest alive without something stimulating and freshening. One can live with one's memories of college life and enjoy them; but an Alumnae can not survive on them.

News, more news and regularly.

Respectfully submitted,

ALICE SWAIN ZELL, President.

CHAPTER REPORT OF RICHMOND

The Richmond Chapter's big effort for the year was the bringing of the Johns Hopkins Musical Club to Richmond. Very little money was made from this endeavor but new interest was created in Sweet Briar. Call meetings were fairly well attended during the year. Sweet Briar Day was observed. The Alumnae were eager for all the current news of the College and left the luncheon feeling that Sweet Briar is doing great things.

Respectfully submitted,

ADDIE ERVIN DES PORTES, Pres.

FINALS, 1925

How many of you remember seeing the plans for the completion of the quadrangle at Sweet Briar? If you've never seen it, get a copy from college and study it carefully with the key to the chart. You'll need to know how to find your way from the Refectory to new Reed dormitory, corresponding in architecture to the Refectory and built next to Grammar. Then maybe you'd like to investigate the new Science building, between Academic and the tennis courts, and after seeing that building you are sure to meet Dr. Harley and she will escort you down the hill below Grammar where a new Infirmary, sun parlor and all, is fast being completed. Study that chart. I never believed until now that it was anything but a pretty picture, but I tell you it is all coming true, and it is well begun. A big crowd was back for May Day; so maybe not as many of us aged creatures graced Finals as usual, but those that did come back can tell you all about the buildings. They walked on every rafter, investigated every suite, and hung out of every window, in spite of their decrepitude.

At one o'clock Saturday Finals formally began, with the Alumnae-Senior luncheon. Jeanette Fitzhugh Evans, and Bertha Pfister Wailes were in charge. The tables were beautifully decorated with roses from Bertha's garden, and the delicious lunch was of great credit to the committee. Many problems were freely discussed during luncheon, and everybody lingered at the tables for a long while afterward in an effort to hear all and tell all. The afternoon was well on its way and broiling hot when finally they left the tea-house. All the parents of the Seniors had arrived for the garden party; high-powered cars were parked over every inch of gravel path and the mothers were anxiously calling up to every window for their daughters to hurry and take them along to the party. The Alumnae had slipped off to the lake for a swim fully intending to return in time to wear their laces and big hats down to the garden. But the lake was so cool, and the float so comfortably warm that when at last they came pulling up the hill, tripping over their gowns they had worn as slickers, the buzz and chatter from the garden told them they were too late for the party. That was bad news, but having been well trained never to miss a function with refreshments, the old ladies approached the boxwoods cautiously, signalled to friends who brought punch and cakes and then they sat back on their haunches to enjoy the repast and watch the party. A real parade of fashion, accompanied by such a society air that they were forced to creep closer and stare to make sure that the girl passing the punch in such a graceful manner was the same Sophomore who was engineering a large water fight, dodging in and out of the trunks in Manson, not eight hours before. Such is the versatility of college life.

A rush for the refectory at six and then down to the bleaches near Daisy's garden, to get top row seats for the Final play. This year a Masque, Comus, was presented, Miss Randall directing. It was a big undertaking, the hard work falling on the director and three or four individuals. Those watching such a production rarely appreciate the preparation that must be made—the scenery built in the trees, the lighting, and the many hours of practise. But the outdoor play is a distinctive feature in our Finals and we would hate to release the actors, so more audience must come and applaud. Saturday night did not end with the play for the Alumnae. The moon was a perfect crescent, and late that night they slipped out of the building, across campus and down to the old oak tree, overlooking the dell. There they lay flat on their backs, and sang all the old songs they had loved, accompanied by a banjo, played by a real artist. It was early morning when they left the campus, sleepy, but still unwilling to go in.

Sunday there was a scurry to get hooded and gowned for the Baccalaureate parade. Miss Dix was called on, for caps and gowns and by eleven the line of Alumnae was formed, in spite of borrowed clothes, really respectable looking in appearance and number. Dr. Poteat of Wake Forest, North Carclina delivered the sermon, a man already well known for his ability to speak.

Immediately after lunch the Alumnae collected in the Senior study to plan for the Senior initiation at the bon-fire. Far be it from me to give away the secrets or method of procedure of such a meeting, but each Senior's name was brought up and her fate was sealed.

At five o'clock sharp, the classes formed in front of the Refectory steps for the last step-singing of the year. All the guests were present, for this ceremony is one of the loveliest of commencement week. The Seniors' singing was unusually good and those members of '23 who will never forget Ruth Pratt singing "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" at their final serenade, would have thrilled again to have heard her sing. In spite of all efforts of the Seniors to give up their steps bravely, when the actual moment arose for the Senior President to place her cap and gown on the Junior President, and then lead her class off the steps, there were audible sobs and not a dry eye. No one could blame them, but only the Alumnae could really know their feeling and fully sympathize. Each class had attractive songs, some unusually clever. After each class sung it moved into the place of the class above it, leaving at last the empty space for the incoming freshmen, the class of 1929.

The Alumnae then had its chance to sing and in spite of the small crowd they made considerable noise after the fashion of singing. After the singing of "Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, Flower Fair", once again everyone went down to the Boxwood Circle, this time for the last vesper circle. Dr. Grammar, in just a few well chosen words, gave to the Seniors a treasure of thoughts. It is very still down in the circle at sunset and the little gathering of students and guests sat there for a long while singing the evening hymns. Sunday was not to end without one more lovely ceremony, known as Lantern Night. About ten o'clock the Sophomores, dressed in white shirts and pajama trousers, giving in the darkness much the appearance of pierrots, came out from Randolph, and formed at the foot of the cupola for their final serenade to the Seniors. Every Senior was in the cupola, dressed in her cap and gown. The Sophomore singing was beautiful, and when they were done the Seniors in single file came down the steps of Academic and around the road singing their lantern song the path lighted only by the lantern each Senior carried. The Sophomores formed two lines for the Seniors to go through on their way to the Refectory steps. As they passed down this line each Senior left her lantern at the foot of a Sophomore. Once on the steps, the Sophomores formed a semicircle around the Seniors, and then the sister classes exchanged one after the other the songs they had loved best.

Monday morning the Alumnae held their annual meeting together with the outgoing Senior class. All business transacted accounted for in the minutes. Some excellent suggestions were offered by the Seniors and they started in at once to assume their share of responsibility. May they never weaken in purpose, nor wander too far but what they send to the Association their change in name and address.

Class day exercises were held in the afternoon, in the old rose garden. The chief stunt was a mock May Day worked out in ridiculous detail. The grave was dug under one of the trees right down there, and the guests were all able to sit and see the farewell rites around the grave. Each year some of the same things are buried, but there are always one or two surprises. One girl buried a dead fly in box. The fly had buzzed around her head ever morning she might have slept for four years, an at last she stated she had caught the creature, an considering it had tortured her, she thought she wa giving it a most decent burial.

Many groups hurried off at six for supper in An herst. There are so many places to go in Amher for supper now, and you never go to Sweet Bria without paying at least one visit to Amherst fo chicken and chocolate cake.

Monday night a concert entertained the gues and following this came the Alumnae bon-fire. A the Seniors were in bathing suits. They wer blindfolded with a towel and led up and dow campus, each minute thinking they were to b plunged into the lake. The screams and laught could have been heard in Lynchburg, and few college failed to creep behind some pillar or po and watch the fun. Around the fire each Senio was called on for stunts finally ending with th Bathing Beauty Pageant, after which we locke arms together and sang "Sweet Briar, Sweet Bria Flower Fair." Nothing left to do then but the en tire packing, moving and tagging of furniture, di mantling the rooms, etc. No matter how efficie a girl is, these things always are left to do at th eleventh hour.

At last Tuesday morning; the line in caps an gowns formed for the last time that year; strain of "Ancient Days" heard, and then down to th chapel for the conferring of the degrees, and anoth hrill while you watch the hoods go on, and the assels turned. Dr. Grammar conferred the degrees, and a selected Sophomore hooded each Senior. Statements and messages to be sent o Miss McVea were read from the Board of Trustees, the Faculty, Alumnae and Students. A etter from Miss McVea to those at Commencenent was read, the message like her in godliness, nd soundness of advice. Margaret McVey preented the portrait of Mr. Manson, a gift to the ollege from Directors, Faculty, Alumnae, Students, nd Employees.

The benediction from Mr. Lewis closed the year 924-25. A full year, one in which we all deeply feel he sorrow of losing Miss McVea, and yet know hat in the selection of Miss Glass Sweet Briar is nost fortunate.

In entering this new period of Sweet Briar's rogress, as a body the Alumnae can be an infinite id. We must have closer cooperation. Pay your lues, connect up with some chapter, or else form a hapter, and answer the cards and letters sent you. You can pay back in service only the real debt you we to Sweet Briar. We do not want to lose a ingle member. Read the lost list and help us out.

The year 1925-26 is here—we are watching the ollege to see what it will do; the college is watchng us—what will we do?

REUNIONS!

1911—Come back and bring your children. Mak arrangements with Dr. Harley to let the babies sta on the sleeping porch in the new infirmary. Fiftee years since you graduated. What a wealth of idea and suggestions you have. Make next June a 10 per cent reunion for 1911.

1916—Ten years you've been out in the wide, wid world. The buildings have changed, but the girl still do the same old things at Sweet Briar that yo loved to do. Wouldn't you like to sit on the Rob insons' porch in Amherst, and drink lemonade an eat chocolate cake?

1921—Five years may have made a vast differenc to you but come back to Sweet Briar and sit o the campus and tell us all about what you're doin and what to do to help Sweet Briar.

1924—Your first reunion. Your sister class i graduating. Get all your class together and giv them a real serenade. Start writing to your friend now and make your plans for a full reunion in Jun

ALUMNAE SONG

Tune—"Field Artillery March"

When the end of the year
And commencement time is here
  Then the Alumnae come rolling along.
We leave all else behind
For the crowd we know we'll find,
  And to Sweet Briar come rolling along!

We can't forget our good old college days,
  We can't leave Sweet Briar very long,
So when things get gay
You will hear the people say
  The Alumnae'll be rolling along!
We have all had our day
And our hair is turning gray,
  But we still keep on rolling along!
We can't dance in the style,
*And our skirts hike up a mile,
  But we still keep on rolling along!
We're not spring chicks and we date from nineteen-six,
  Our cracked old throats can hardly sing this song,
But, when things get gay
You will hear the people say,
  The Alumnae'll come rolling along!

*Line reads as above or—"Skirts hang down a mile." Depends on fashion, don't-you-know.
